ORDER:

The Director General of Police, Andhra Pradesh in the references 1st and 3rd read above has reported that Sri G.Amarnath, SP (NC), CVO, APCPDCL, dealt with major charge under Rule 20 of APCS (CC&A) Rules, 1991 against the following article of charge by the Government on 24.03.2011:

Article-I:

During his tenure as CVO, APCPDCL, he exhibited gross misconduct, dereliction of duty and behaved unbecoming of a Police Officer by showing poor performance, not exhibit any signs of either taking interest in his work or performing as CVO and abusing, issued regular routine memos to his subordinates inspite of an advisory memo.

Article-II:

He is in the habit of bullying subordinates, extorting favour and receiving services grants and threatens them by saying that he would filed a case under the SC/ST (POA) Act, 1989 against them. Thus, he brought disrepute to the image of police and caused disaffection in the APTS (Anti Power Theft Squad) organization.

2. The Deputy Inspector General of Police, Eluru Range, Eluru who was appointed as an Inquiring Authority conducted Oral Enquiry against the Charged Officer under Rule 20 of APCS (CC&A) Rules, 1991 and submitted his findings duly holding the charge as "Proved" vide C.No.018/ACB-AD/2017, dated 18.01.2019. Since the Charged Officer retired from service on 31.08.2018, proceedings have to be concluded against him by the Government, in terms of Rule 9 of Andhra Pradesh Revision Pension Rules, 1980.

3. In the reference 2nd read above, the Charged Officer in his representation has submitted that the findings of the Inquiring Authority are without any substance and totally unjustifiable. He has submitted that there are no guidelines in the organization to assess the performance of an Officer and hence the findings of the IA are contradictory and baseless. The Charged Officer also quoted a Supreme Court order and a detailed description in this matter. Further, the Charged Officer also denied the Charge-II stating that the IA has not properly appreciated / considered the evidences which are in his favour. Accordingly, he denied the charges leveled against him and requested the Government to consider his present position after his retirement i.e., his financial crises, ill health and to drop further action against him

4. After careful examination of the entire matter with available records, Government hereby decided to drop further action against Sri G. Amarnath, Retired SP (NC) and accordingly, drop further disciplinary action against the Charged Officer.

Contd..2,

5. The Director General of Police, Andhra Pradesh is requested to take further necessary action in the matter. The records received in the references cited are returned herewith and the receipt of the same should be acknowledged.
